Calloway Student Is Winner Of Scholarship

A Calloway County High School senior is among about 1,500 winners of college-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarships that have been announced by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Kevin A. Bowen, Route Two, a Calloway High senior, has received a four-year scholarship to attend Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology.

Bowen's major field of study is physics and mathematics. He is the 1977 graduating class valedictorian, and has been presented National Forensic League degrees of merit, honor, excellence, and distinction.

Bowen is the president of the Beta Club, newspaper editor, a member of the varsity debate team, Future Business Leaders of America, business math team, regional debate champion, chess club champion, and received the Most Outstanding Student award in Spanish.

College-sponsored merit scholarships are offered with the stipulation that they must be used at the sponsoring institutions. The scholarships are renewable for up to four years of undergraduate study, but are not transferable to another college or university.

The winners were selected by officials of the sponsoring college who also computed the students' financial need and determined the individual annual stipends.

The dollar amounts, which can range from $250 to $1,500 per year, are not made public. The average annual stipend for a college-sponsored merit scholarship is currently about $725, or $2,900 for the four years.

The 1977 merit scholarship competition began in October, 1975, when over 1 million high school juniors from more than 17,000 secondary schools took preliminary tests.

The highest scorers in each state were announced publicly as semifinalists in September, 1976. The 15,000 semifinalists together represented less than one-half of one per cent of the seniors in the United States, and the number of semifinalists in each state was proportional to the state's percentage of the national total.

There were about 3,800 of those who were awarded scholarships in the form of corporate-sponsored four-year merit scholarships, nonrenewable national merit $1,000 scholarships, or college-sponsored four-year grants, such as the one Bowen received.

Alleged Stolen Van Is Recovered In Henry Co.

The Henry County Sheriff's Department has recovered what is reported to be a van that was stolen last night in Calloway County.

Henry County Sheriff's Deputy Larry Clayton said today that he was on patrol last night when he noticed a wrecker pulling a van that was similar to the one that had been reported stolen in Calloway County.

Calloway County Deputy David Balentine said this morning that the van was owned by Carl Morris, of Calloway County, who reported that it was stolen at about 3:15 a.m. today.

Balentine said Morris reported that the van had been seen as it was towed away by a wrecker, with another automobile following.

Four persons, all of Paris, were jailed on charges of unlawful taking, a Class D felony in Tennessee. The four, according to the Henry County Sheriff's Department, included Billy Ray Smith, 43, Lee Roy Campbell, 18, Thomas W. Campbell, 50, and Ronald C. Reeves, 31.

Henry County officials said the two Campbell men were driving the wrecker, and the other two were in an automobile.

Balentine was scheduled to appear at a hearing today in Paris, at which bail will be set and possible extradition begun to Calloway County.

The seminar will be held at the special education building, at the corner of 16th and Hamilton Streets.

Registration For Kindergarten Set At Board Office

Dr. Jack Rose, Superintendent of Calloway County Schools, has announced that registration for the first Calloway County Public School Kindergarten will be held May 2 and 3 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Calloway County Board of Education office, located at 2110 College Farm Rd., next door to Calloway County High School.

Parents are requested to bring the child's health records with them to the registration.

The kindergarten, which will be located in the Early Childhood Education Center (former University School) on the Murray State campus, will be composed of a morning and afternoon session. Children may attend either the morning or afternoon session for the entire year. The kindergarten will follow the same calendar as the other schools in the county system.

Dr. Rose emphasized that priority will be given to children who live in the Calloway County school district and those whose parents are employed by the Calloway County school system. If space is not available for all who would like to attend, determination will be based on those whose registrations are received earliest (first-come, first-served).

Charity Horse Show To Get Underway Here Friday, May 20

They'll be mounting up Friday, May 20, for the first of two nights of class competitions as the second annual Kentucky State Charity Horse Show gets underway in the West Kentucky Livestock Show and Exposition Center on the Murray State University agricultural laboratory farm, one mile west of the campus.

This year's show, which will include showings in 22 classes from the open pleasure pony to the open five-gaited horse, will run for two nights with performances beginning each evening at 7:30 p.m. in the indoor, 2,600-seat arena.

A highlight of this year's show will be special ceremonies Saturday evening during which the $2.6 million facility, the only indoor horse show arena in Kentucky west of Louisville, will be dedicated officially. Expected to participate in the ceremonies is U.S. Senator Wendell H. Ford, during whose administration as Kentucky's 49th governor the facility was constructed.

More than 150 entries competed in the show last year and more than $3,300 in prizes were awarded in one whirlwind evening of competition.

By expanding the show to two nights this year, the sponsoring Rotary Club and the Sigma Department of the Murray Woman's Club hope to generate still greater interest in the event and to regulate the pace of the competitions more effectively.

Patron tickets, priced at $10 each, have been on sale since the first week in April and cover both nights' performances. General admission tickets will go on sale at $3 each the first week of May. They are good for only one performance.

Judging this year's show will be Donna Moore of Versailles, Ky. The classes will be presented in the following order on the evenings indicated:

Friday, May 20: Open pleasure pony, amateur three-gaited horse, amateur roadster pony to bike, equitation (riders 13 and under), slow racking horse, junior five-gaited horse, amateur harness pony, equitation (riders 14 through 17 years of age), junior three-gaited horse, open fox trot horse and amateur five-gaited horse.

Friday, May 21: American saddlebred three-gaited horse, open roadster pony, American saddlebred five-gaited pleasure horse, style racking horse, open fine harness pony, U.P.H.A. Challenger Cup equitation Class Chapter (for riders 17 years of age and under), open three-gaited horse, fine harness horse, open racking horse, road horse to bike and open five-gaited horse.

Poor Taste Can't Be Legislated

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1977 by The Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to respond to DISGUSTED IN BOSTON about his concern for beauty on the streets and in the shopping centers. "Queen-sized" women in tight pants are indeed unsightly, if not klutzy.

However, has it occurred to DISGUSTED that while he is so zealously championing legislation against such visual pollution, he might also include certain male klutzes?

I refer to men with offensively protruding beer bellies thinly covered by overstretched T-shirts. Trousers cannot begin to scale such heights and dutifully ride low, all the better to reveal proud displays of ridiculously laden, overstuffed abdomens.

You see, DISGUSTED, there are two sides to every coin and, really, personal decorum rests with the individual. Or should we also attempt to make illegal body odor, runs in stockings, nail biting, etc.?

Poor taste is hardly a matter for legislation, and while there is much to be said for a More Beautiful America, surely there are more weighty problems on which we should expend our efforts!

SEES BOTH SIDES IN N.C.

DEAR BOTH: It's only fair to show both sides. And I'm on yours.

DEAR ABBY: I invited 22 people to my home for Easter Sunday dinner at noon. Everyone but my husband's brother and his wife accepted. She said, "I'm sorry, I already promised my mother we'd go to her house for the noon meal, but we'll be hungry again at 7 p.m. so we'll come to your house for leftovers. Okay, honey?"

Not knowing what else to say, I said, "Okay." Well, they came at 7 p.m. with three other couples I didn't even know, and cleaned me out of all my leftovers and ran.

I stood in my kitchen doing dishes until midnight. I'm plenty burned up because I had plans for those leftovers. I'll leave it up to you, Abby. How could I have gotten out of letting her come when she invited herself?

TUCKERED OUT IN TORRANCE

DEAR TUCKERED: Just because people invite themselves is no reason to make them welcome. You could have said, "I'm sorry, but my dinner party is at NOON, and I expect to be tucked out at 7 p.m., so let's make it some other time. Okay, honey?"

DEAR ABBY: I am steaming mad about all of the pollution going on. Not just air and water pollution, but littering. Today at lunch, I saw a middle-aged woman sit in her car in a restaurant parking lot and throw not ONE but THREE paper napkins out the window.

Being responsible citizens, my girlfriend and I picked them up and calmly handed them back to her through her open window and said, "I think you dropped these."

At this point she got hot and mouthy. I calmly informed her that what she did was against the law and was called "littering." Then I walked away.

What kind of example is the older generation setting for young people today if this is their normal practice?

SUSIE IN W. COVINA

DEAR SUSIE: A very bad one. And good for you and your girlfriend for having the courage and taking the time to do as you did.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope please.

Exie Hill Surprised With Visit From The Governor

Exie Hill received a special surprise on Wednesday evening, April 30, when Kentucky Governor Julian M. Carroll paid a visit to her apartment at Hester Hall, Murray State University.

The occasion was to present Mrs. Hill with a commission as a Kentucky Colonel of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Gov. Carroll presented the commission to Mrs. Hill in person for her work as a house director for 270 girls at Hester Hall and also for her past services. She will be retiring at the end of the present school term, but will still be residing in Murray.

Mrs. Hill came to Murray in 1964 to work one month as a house director for a person who was ill and has been here every since. Her husband, William H. Hill of Fulton, had died previously to her coming to Murray.

After coming to the university, she worked two years at Elizabeth Hall before opening Clark Hall for girls in the spring of 1966. She became house director of Hester Hall when it was opened in the fall of 1967 and has been in that same position since that time. Mrs. Hill said she has enjoyed the association with the many girls at the dormitory and will miss the contacts with them each day. Gov. and Mrs. Carroll's daughter, Patrice, is a resident of the Hester Hall dormitory.

The retiring house director is a member of the Murray Country Club and the First United Methodist Church. She has one son, William T. Hill, an engineer at Baton Rouge, La., and one daughter, Beverly Hill Craig, voice major, who resides in Lakeland, N.J., where her husband is a pilot for Pan American Airlines.

Productivity Curbs Prices

In 1950, there were more than twice as many farmers and ranchers than there are today. But farm production in terms of bushels per acre and livestock per man-hour of labor is running at more than twice the level of 1950. The dramatic increase in productivity by farmers and ranchers has helped curb increases in food prices. A willingness to use new and better techniques for production, investments in large, more efficient equipment and continual improvement in the quality of livestock and crops are the major reasons for the surge in agricultural productivity.

Social Security May Help Handicapped

Every day there are numerous children born in this country with some type of disabling handicap and many of these children live here in our area, according to a local social security spokesman.

Their families are faced with added financial burdens due to the necessity for extra medical care, special therapy, and special home care the children require.

"The Social Security Administration may be able to assist families of handicapped or disabled children by making payments to them through the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program," the spokesman said.

Under the SSI program, payments of up to $167.80 per month can be made to any child who is under age 18 and who meets the basic eligibility requirements. When determining eligibility for these payments, the income and resources of the child and his family must be considered as well as the child's medical condition.

If you have a disabled child and have questions regarding SSI payments for disabled children please, contact your Social Security office. The telephone number in the Paducah area is 443-7506, and the telephone number in the Mayfield area is 247-8095.

Angela Wilkins Discusses The Guidance Work

"A counselor is a person who has special training in how to help others and a special empathy to tune in to another's needs," said Angela Wilkins, consultant-supervisor, Department of Education, Division of Guidance Services.

She says that counselors are sometimes "born in a classroom" as she was six years ago. "As a high school English teacher, I encountered many students with behavioral problems and special needs," reflects Angela. "I wanted to help, but I didn't know how or where to begin."

She took the first step by earning a master's degree in guidance and counseling from Murray State University. During the first year Angela worked as a guidance counselor, she experienced a student walk-out.

How does a counselor handle a student walk-out?

"Like many other problems in counseling, one learns technique and method by experience," responds Angela. "The key lies in recognizing that troubled students are important people with needs that have not been met in the educational process."

During the next three years, Angela continued to acquire new skills and experiences as a guidance counselor. Before joining the state Department of Education in 1974, she had worked in three Kentucky schools and one in West Virginia.

In 1974 Angela worked in the Division of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention and assisted in the coordination of the state's alternative education program.

Along with her regular duties, Angela presented many workshops and seminars on delinquency prevention for meetings of professional organizations.

In addition to workshop presentations, Angela has written a number of articles on delinquency prevention which appeared in state and national publications.

Since October 1976, Angela has been working with the Division of Guidance Services' team of consultant-supervisors. "Each of the consultant-supervisors is assigned to an area of the state and works with the counselors in that region," explains Dr. Curtis Phipps, director of the division.

"We attempt to generate new ideas and share resources and techniques," he said. "We strive to help counselors become more effective and to accomplish the goals they set at the beginning of the school year."

April 24-30 is Guidance Week in Kentucky. Counselors throughout the state who need assistance in planning special programs or activities to expand the community's knowledge of guidance services may contact Dr. Phipps or any of the consultant-supervisors at (502) 564-3678 or by writing to the Division of Guidance Services, Kentucky Department of Education, 1911 Capitol Plaza Tower, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

Counselors may also request special audio-visual materials from Dr. Phipps or Dr. Bill Braden, assistant director. Dr. Braden is the co-author of the Communications Survival Kit, a package of appropriate materials for use during Guidance Week.

HEARTLINE

HEARTLINE is a service for senior citizens of all ages. Its purpose is to answer questions and solve problems — fast. If you have a question or a problem not answered in these columns, write HEARTLINE, 114 E. Dayton St., West Alexandria, Ohio 45381. Senior citizens will receive prompt replies, but you must include a stamped, self-addressed envelope. The most useful replies will be printed in this column.

HEARTLINE: I am 62 years old and have just retired. I feel I need something to do with my time and I would love to meet other people. I use to do quite a lot of writing, so I was wondering if you know of any pen pal clubs for people my age. S.K.

ANSWER: Heartline has started a pen pal club for Americans over age 50. This club has now been running for more than two years and has many thousands of members.

For more information and an application form, please write to: "Heartline American 60 Club," 114 E. Dayton St., West Alexandria, Ohio 45381.

HEARTLINE: I am a 40-year-old widow with no children to look after me and I've never worked under Social Security because I was disabled at age 28. In the five months since my husband's death, I have had to spend most of our savings and I have no other income. Can I get any benefits on my husband's Social Security record? J.C.

ANSWER: You would have to be at least 50 to be eligible for disabled widow's benefits under the Social Security law. However, you may be eligible for Supplemental Security Income, so contact the people in the nearest Social Security office to see about applying for the monthly SSI benefits.

HEARTLINE: I am drawing a Veterans' Administration service-connected disability benefit. I have heard that the V.A. will pay recipients of service-connected disability benefits a yearly check for clothing allowances. How do I go about getting this? R.C.

ANSWER: It is true the V.A. does pay an annual clothing allowance for some veterans receiving a service-connected disability benefit. However, the only veterans eligible for the allowance are those who wear or use one or more prosthetic or orthopedic appliances — including wheelchair — which the V.A. determines tends to wear out or tear clothing. If eligible, the annual clothing allowance payment is $175. Applications can be made at any V.A. office.

AP NEWS ANALYSIS

All Is Not Well In The Presidential Fraternity

By WALTER R. MEARS

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — All is not well in the fraternity of presidents. Jimmy Carter thinks Gerald Ford has forgotten the secret handshake.

Ford is miffed, too. The former president has told associates that Carter is scoring points now by advocating programs he criticized during the campaign for the White House.

That's two out of the three members of what Carter called "the fraternity of the presidents and former presidents." The third is Richard M. Nixon, and Carter apparently isn't interested in any contact with him.

Some club.

Ford and Carter got along just fine between the election and the inauguration, but the era of good feeling didn't last the first 100 days of the Democratic administration.

Ford began criticizing Carter, stinging the President most by saying that if he were still president the United States and the Soviet Union would by now have a new treaty on strategic arms limitation.

That comment came after the Russians had spurned Carter's strategic arms proposals. Ford also said the administration had miscalculated, and suggested that the new crowd might be naive. The former Republican president had complained earlier that Carter economic plans risked renewed inflation, venturing that criticism two days after what had been described as a cordial meeting with his successor.

But it was the foreign policy slap that really rankled. In recent times, past presidents have avoided criticizing their successors' policies abroad. They generally have waited longer than Ford did before speaking critically of other aspects of the new administration.

Of course Ford is a past president with a difference. He didn't retire, he was defeated. He now holds open the possibility that he might run again in 1980, although it seems unlikely.

Anyhow, Vice President Walter F. Mondale suggested to Carter that something be done about the Ford attacks. He told the President it was about time Democratic leaders started going after Ford in return. Carter agreed, and Mondale raised the subject at a White House meeting with Democratic congressional leaders last Tuesday.

Mondale said Ford had departed from tradition with his slaps at the Carter administration.

Carter then contrasted Ford's criticism with what he said were offers of assistance from Nixon. Initial accounts of the Tuesday meeting attributed that to Mondale, but sources said it was the President who told of the Nixon offers. He said the resigned Nixon had offered to brief officials of the Democratic administration on his presidential conversations with Soviet and other foreign leaders.

Carter was said to have no plans for such briefings by Nixon.

Sensing The News

By ANTHONY HARRIGAN

Executive Vice President
United States Industrial Council

HARRIGAN

TODAY'S TOPIC: LITTLE AMERICA?

Is the United States about to begin a retreat from high ambition and greatness? Is the nation moving toward the era of Little America?

These questions arise from the first signs of the Carter administration's energy policy.

Recently, Dr. James Schlesinger, President Carter's energy adviser, said: "Americans have never understood finiteness. They have believed in growth, expansion, limitless resources. In energy, all of these presuppositions must preface change."

Not everyone will agree with Dr. Schlesinger.

Americans believe in growth and rightly so. The American story is one of growth, expansion, and vast resources. It is a story of a continent being filled by millions of immigrants from lands across the sea. This orientation toward growth provided the American people with their historic dynamism.

It would be a tragedy if the American people accepted the idea that they have reached the limits of growth. As the Wall Street Journal said recently, the country can't go back to Walden Pond without experiencing mass poverty. America must continue to think big. It must continue to build and industrialize. Much of the American continent is still largely empty, though the fashionable sociologists speak of overcrowding. They obviously haven't seen Wyoming or Montana, New Mexico or Texas, or many of the lightly populated states in the mid-South and mid-West.

Growth means work for the American people. Americans have a high level of economic expectations. They don't want a curtailment of growth that means a cutback in employment.

However, growth and employment require abundant energy. To be sure, the country is remiss in depending on imported foreign oil. The outflow of funds for oil from the OPEC countries is an economic hemorrhage which must be stopped.

The United States is fortunate, however, in that it possesses vast coal deposits. The U.S. also leads the world in nuclear science and engineering. Nuclear power can produce a significant part of the nation's energy needs — under conditions of safety — if the anti-nuclear zealots aren't permitted to shut down this modern miracle. Already, they are well on their way to halting development of the fast-breeder nuclear reactor, which promises so much in the way of energy production in the years ahead.

Other extremists regard the automobile as an enemy. They want to pass laws prohibiting the manufacture of big cars, and impose high taxes on gasoline in order to curtail automobile travel. In so doing, they are striking at the mobility of the American people, mobility that's vital to their ability to move goods, provide services, and earn their livings.

The anti-automobile extremists insist that people use public transportation, but that's a pipe dream in most parts of the country. It is an unfortunate fact that passenger railroading is dead in all but a few sections of the country, and this writer is a rail fan who loves trains. The American people have plainly indicated, however, that they want to use personal cars, not depend on mass transportation.

The United States has no need to turn itself into Little America. It has the coal and the nuclear know-how to meet its energy needs. Deregulation of oil and gas would increase production of those fuels. In time, solar energy will make a contribution.

Conservation makes sense, but it isn't a substitute for an energy development policy. It must not be used as justification for junking the nation's tradition of growth and expansion. We have just begun to realize the potentialities of North America. This is not time to think small.

Unionization of the U. S. military forces is an idea whose time for rejection has come.

In Washington the battle lines appear to be forming over a threat by an AFL-CIO union to organize military personnel.

Sen. Strom Thurmond (R-S.C.), who believes the unionization threat is serious, has introduced legislation backed by 37 co-sponsors to outlaw military unions.

When President Carter spoke to a group of Pentagon workers, he said flatly that in his opinion it would "not be advisable to have military personnel unionized."

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States recently adopted a formal policy position against military unionization, declaring "existence of unions within the armed forces would erode discipline and result in irrevocable damage to our military effectiveness and national defense posture."

No doubt, union officials would disavow any intention ever to strike in time of national crisis.

What citizens must ask themselves is whether this country can afford to risk its national security on no-strike pledges, no matter how well intentioned.

Letter To The Editor

Another View On Apple

Dear Editor:

May I reply to the letter by two M.S.U. students printed April 9? No, I am not a resident of Henry County; I live just north of the state line in Calloway County. As a not-too-distant neighbor of the Big Apple, YES, I condone the police action in arresting 202 people at this place!

I condone it because those arrested were guilty of breaking the law, not because they are "...young, MSU students and have long hair." Public drunkenness is breach of law. Resisting police officers is a serious offense. Those who are guilty of these offenses should be arrested and convicted regardless of number, age, school, or length of hair. Concerning the number of arrests, MSU students Boyd and Boyd state: "Most of these people (the 202 arrested) never came outside the bar and knew nothing about the trouble occurring outside."

This is not intended as a personal attack, but it is difficult to believe that statement. Can the tiny "Big Apple" even seat "most" of 202 people inside? That would be 102 or more people. It seems even more unlikely that this many people would have remained inside during the hectic events referred to.

Secondly, I condone this arrest because I, as a tax-paying citizen, have certain rights which were violated by thoughtless people. For example, I have the right to pass safely down highways built with public funds. I have the right to live in a safe, law-governed community. Public drunkenness, inciting of riots, and obstruction of public thoroughways all deny me these rights.

Above all, we must keep in mind that drunkenness (whether public or private) is a sin which bars its participants from heaven (Galatians 5:21, New Testament). "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." (Proverbs 21:1).

Equally important is the fact that any police officer who is acting in the interest of the people and the government of the people is "the minister of God to thee for good." (Romans 13:4). Furthermore, I agree that the trouble occurring at the Apple was a disgrace. That disgrace, however, is not to be blamed on hard working police officers who perform their duty. Rather it should be charged to those who by their irresponsible actions started the whole mess anyway!

Sincerely,
Don Riley, Hazel, Ky.

Coffee Habits

Let's Stay Well

Q: Mrs. K.G. cannot understand why so many persons continue to drink coffee and to buy it at such high prices. She asks if there is a medical reason.

A: The cost of an individual cup of coffee, particularly if it is prepared at home, is modest and one of the most economical drinks. So, the cost is not yet high enough to prohibit coffee-drinking.

The medical reasons for the use of coffee are the enjoyment of the taste and odor and the widespread dependence on caffeine. This type of habituation amounts to a mild form of addiction.

Coffee consumption is likely to be increased during times of stress. It may not be well tolerated when a person is already "loaded" with coffee. Excess is often combined with chain-smoking cigarettes. This combination can lead to fatigue and impairment of appetite. Inability to perform and meet the demands of the day may bring frustration and turmoil.

Some persons tolerate caffeine much better than do others. Signs of intolerance include a fast or skippy pulse, nervousness, fatigue, insomnia, mild tremor of hands, and difficulty in concentration. If an individual sees a physician about such complaints, tests may show no physical illness. Therefore, it is important that the physician is told about coffee habits. They may be the cause of the trouble.

One way to improve the habit pattern of heavy coffee-drinking is to cut down gradually, reducing consumption to one or two cups in the morning — one at breakfast and a second in mid-morning. Withdrawal can be painful but it can be accomplished in a couple of weeks. Decaffeinated coffee may give the pleasure of the taste without the caffeine.

For some, the increase in cost may be a reason to reduce coffee consumption. If one has trouble doing so, it is significant proof that he is hooked, and it is a good time to get control of a habit that can lead to health problems.

Something Rotten In Virginia

All is fair in war. Basketball recruiting is war and though it's perfectly legal, it may not be fair what Virginia has done. Virginia landed both Lee Raker and Jeff Lamp. Both played for Kentucky state champions Louisville Ballard. That's fine. The "how they did it" is the problem. Ballard coach Richard Schmidt is taking some time to consider an offer to become an assistant coach at Virginia. Horsefeathers! The whole deal was cut and dried and it makes a farce out of recruiting. It would be interesting to know just how much money was spent in recruiting Lamp and Raker. Lamp had offers from well over 200 colleges. And you can assume that most of the coaches and scouts from those 200 colleges made trips to see Lamp play. Wouldn't it be interesting to see just how much all of those coaches spent in plane fares, motel bills etc. just to get a look at Lamp? In the future, this may well be the thing to do: reduce the number of scholarships at your school and take the money and put it in a fund for another assistant coaching position. Sure. That's it. A few years from now, you may see eight blue-chip players on one team and on the bench, there'll be eight assistant coaches, each of whom came with "their star" in a package deal. The whole thing should be investigated. Schmidt isn't going to sign on just yet. That would make it too obvious. Instead, he'll wait until the thing blows over and then ink his John Doe on a nice contract at Virginia and it's all legal and forgotten. Something is rotten in Virginia.

MSU Report

So how is the recruiting going at Murray State? Slow. Murray has signed 5-10 David Lowery of Henderson County and in addition, the Racers have signed a super forward out of junior college. The latter signing has not yet been publically released. What else? It basically hinges on a 6-10 high schooler from Missouri. If he signs this weekend, then the recruiting picture is rather clear at Murray State. If he doesn't, Murray may take a while longer and keep on hunting. The Racers will probably sign one more guard. Look for that guard to be from western Kentucky. Murray was in the running for former Indiana Mr. Basketball Rick Valavicius but he signed with Auburn. Another former Mr. Basketball from Indiana is expected to transfer into Murray this fall and he will sit out a year. He is a guard and with Bobo Jackson as a runningmate, look for Murray to have the best 1-2 guard punch in the league two years from now. Murray has three scholarships left open as of now and the Racers may well be signing a big center who could blossom in a year or two. Otherwise, with most of the team returning for next season, it looks good.

Furgerson Says Spring Practice 'Successful'

Murray State football Coach Bill Furgerson says the Racer spring practice, which ended in a rain-drenched intrasquad game Saturday was largely successful and that his squad is considerably ahead of last year's at this stage. "The spring-game conditions were terrible," Furgerson said, "but there were still some things being done well. I thought the defense played exceptionally well and a lot of the good performances were by people not on the first unit. We have good depth in most defensive positions and we have eight linebackers who can play. I don't remember a Murray team since I've been here with that kind of depth. I thought our offense showed a lot of promise, too. Perine (tailback Austin Perine) really looked quick, and although we didn't complete a lot of passes, I thought the passing was good under the conditions."

Perine, a transfer from Gulf Coast, Mississippi, Junior College, was the game's leading ground-gainer with 91 yards in 21 attempts. He also caught 2 passes for 26 yards and had a 1-yard touchdown run. Tyrus Brown, another junior college transfer, had 36 yards in 6 rushes and a 3-yard touchdown run. David Ruzich threw a 2-yard pass to Tim Oakley for the third score of the night.

Mike Dickens, who guided the Blue team to its 15-7 victory, completed 6 of 13 passes for 69 yards. Roger Rushing and Ruzich, the Gold quarterbacks, completed 6 of 14 for 65 yards. Each team had two interceptions.

Leading receiver was the Blue's David Thomas with 3 for 34 yards. He also took a two-point-conversion pass from Dickens to give the Blues an 8-7 lead in the fourth quarter.

Bobby Craig and Roy Hackley had interceptions for the Blues, Mike Basiak and Tom Houk for the Golds.

Mitterwald Sinks Cards As Cubs Claim 4-1 Win

By JOE MOOSHIL
AP Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Nobody wants to admit it but George Mitterwald is zeroing in as the Chicago Cubs' No. 1 catcher. "I've got two good catchers," said Manager Herman Franks after a 4-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in which Mitterwald singled home two runs and threw out two would-be base stealers.

Mitterwald's contributions accented a fine, six-hit pitching performance by Rick Reuschel who hiked his record to 2-1 and notched his first complete game of the season.

"Reuschel was tough enough when he had to be," said St. Louis Manager Vern Rapp. "We had the opportunities but we didn't drive in any runs when it counted."

Actually, the Cardinals didn't have that many opportunities. Garry Templeton singled in the first but was thrown out by Mitterwald. Ted Simmons walked in the second and was thrown out by Mitterwald.

Singles by Lou Brock and Templeton and a sacrifice fly by Simmons accounted for St. Louis' only run in the fourth inning when Reuschel picked Bake McBride off first base.

A double by Ken Reitz was wasted in the sixth. A walk and a single by Tony Scott came after two were out in the seventh when Reuschel got Mike Tyson to line out.

"I thought I had Simmons struck out in the fourth before he hit the sacrifice fly," said Reuschel. "But the umpire didn't see it that way. I had a good fast ball. I was getting it over, hitting the spots and keeping it low."

Eric Rasmussen, 1-3, was the victim of walks—both intentional and unintentional.

A pair of walks and singles by Bill Buckner and Manny Trillo accounted for the tying run in the bottom of the fourth. With runners on second and third and two outs, Rapp ordered an intentional pass to Steve Ontiveros and Mitterwald followed with his two-run single.

"I'd do it again tomorrow," said Rapp.

"When they walk a man to get at you, it makes you more determined," said Mitterwald. "I hadn't been swinging too good and something like that helps being out the best in you."

Mitterwald expressed more surprise that the Cardinals ran on him in the early innings.

"I did well against them last year but you know, they have a new manager and that could make a difference," said Mitterwald, who has started all but two games this season behind the plate.

The Cubs added a run in the fifth when Jose Cardenal singled and Bobby Murcer doubled with two outs. Jerry Morales was given an intentional walk and Rasmussen then walked Trillo to force in another run.

The Cubs now have won three straight and will try to extend the streak Wednesday in the series finale against the Cardinals and John Denny who has a perfect 4-0 record. Rookie Mike Krukow, 0-1, goes for the Cubs despite being knocked out in his first three starts.

TIES PERSONAL BEST—Bill McHugh of Murray High clears 11-0 in the pole vault to equal his previous best effort in the event. McHugh also won the 880-yard run for the Tigers.

Calloway County Drops 7-5 Game To Wildcats

Fred Kemp threw a no-hitter Tuesday afternoon...and didn't win. On the other hand, he didn't lose either. Kemp, a sophomore righthander for Calloway County, pitched four innings of no-hit baseball before leaving the game because of a stiff arm. During those four innings, he was touched for three runs, though he did not give up a hit. He had the lead when he went out of the game but the Lakers were unable to hold the lead and fell 7-5 to visiting Farmington. The game was sloppily played, with a total of 10 errors being committed. Farmington, which at one time lost nine of their first 10 games, used two walks and an error to load the bases in the top half of the second. Then Allen Cochrum of the Wildcats hit a routine liner toward right. The ball somehow was muffed by the Laker rightfielder and three runs came marching around the bases. Calloway got the runs back plus one more to take a 4-3 lead in the third. With one out, Ricky Garland and Ronnie Gibson drew back-to-back walks then Terry Gibson slammed one out of the park, over the fence in center to tie the game. Scott Barrow walked, stole second and scored when Kelly White reached on an error and the Lakers went ahead 4-3. Ronnie Gibson came in for Kemp in the fifth inning and after giving up a walk then retiring the next two batters, Gibson gave up a single to Wayne Wheeler of the 'Cats. A throwing error by the catcher moved the runners to second and third then Randy Coleman came through with a two-run single and Farmington took a 5-4 lead. Farmington added two more runs in the seventh. Calloway's last run came in the bottom of the seventh when Kelly White hit a two-out double, scoring Ronnie Gibson who had led off the inning with a single. Ronnie Gibson, who was charged with the loss, hurled two and two-thirds frames, giving up four runs and six hits. Only two of the runs were earned. Mound ace Tommy Chavis faced one batter and fanned him. Each team had six hits and committed five errors. The Lakers, who have not been coming up with the clutch hits lately, left a dozen men stranded on the basepaths. Farmington, which had previously beaten Fancy Farm and Cairo Camelot, is now 3-10 on the season. The Lakers, now 3-5 on the year, will play at Farmington Friday before hosting South Hopkins to a doubleheader Saturday. The first game Saturday will begin at 1 p.m.

While Cherry was congratulating himself for the triumph, he was careful not to give the Flyers any inflammatory words to post on their bulletin board. "The big thing to remember," he said, "was that Toronto did the same thing to them (in the quarter-finals) and they came back to take the series. We're not counting our chickens yet, but it's unbelievable. I never thought we'd go back to Boston ahead 2-0." Neither did the Flyers, whose loss was their fourth at home in the last five playoff games. They led 3-1 in the second period, but the Bruins tied it 4-4 in a wild period during which three goals were scored in 38 seconds, tying a playoff record for the fastest three goals by two teams. ## Bruins Win On Flyers' Ice, Canadiens Take 3-0 Victory

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "It was probably the greatest hockey game I've ever played in," said Boston captain Wayne Cashman. "Just grind it out and come back for more. It was a fantastic game to win."

And because the Bruins won, for the second time in overtime on the home ice of the Philadelphia Flyers, they carry a 2-0 lead back to Boston in their best-of-seven National Hockey League semifinal playoff series.

They won 5-4 on Terry O'Reilly's goal from short range at 10:07 of the second overtime, paying tribute to a change in strategy by Bruins Coach Don Cherry. He took veteran Bobby Schmautz off the forward line with center Jean Ratelle and Don Marcotte, replacing him with the volatile O'Reilly.

"See what a smart move I made?" Cherry said. "I put in O'Reilly because he was still grinding."

While Cherry was congratulating himself for the triumph, he was careful not to give the Flyers any inflammatory words to post on their bulletin board.

"The big thing to remember," he said, "was that Toronto did the same thing to them (in the quarter-finals) and they came back to take the series. We're not counting our chickens yet, but it's unbelievable. I never thought we'd go back to Boston ahead 2-0."

Neither did the Flyers, whose loss was their fourth at home in the last five playoff games.

They led 3-1 in the second period, but the Bruins tied it 4-4 in a wild period during which three goals were scored in 38 seconds, tying a playoff record for the fastest three goals by two teams. The mark was set in 1965 in the Montreal-Toronto semifinal series. Ratelle made it 4-4 with a goal at 15:39 of the second period. After a scoreless third period and 30 minutes more of overtime, O'Reilly finally sent a stunned sellout crowd of 17,077 mumbling into the rainy morning.

The jubilant right wing, in his sixth year with the Bruins, explained that Flyers goalie Wayne Stephenson "slid to the other side of the net. When he tried to get back, there was not much he could do. The puck went between his legs. Marcotte put it right on my stick."

"I won't think about it," said Stephenson. "There is nothing I can do about it. It's over. I hope Boston counts us out."

Flyers' Coach Fred Shero said his team should have won in regulation. He indicated Philadelphia would have a much tougher time at Boston in the third and fourth games Thursday and Sunday nights.

"We will have to be quicker than here," Shero said, "because center ice is smaller and the corners are shaped differently. The play goes end-to-end faster. Can we do it? I have to say yes, but it will be hard. (Gerry) Cheevers is a tough goaltender and the Bruins are hungry."

MONTREAL (AP) — The Montreal Canadiens are not about to admit they have the New York Islanders on the ropes. They know full well that the Islanders have come back from deficits in the past to win National Hockey League playoff series.

After Montreal had beaten the Islanders 3-0 Tuesday night and taken a 2-0 lead in their best-of-seven Stanley Cup semifinal series, goalie Ken Dryden said he was sure New York would not be down for long.

"I would expect that right now the Islanders are extremely upset and disappointed," he said after stopping 19 shots and recording the sixth shutout of his playoff career. "But by tomorrow they will be less of that and maybe a little bit more encouraged."

"They played extremely well. They forced us to play extremely well. It was a 0-0 game for (almost) 50 minutes and I would think they would start to feel encouraged about the rest of the series."

Third-period goals by Jim Roberts, Larry Robinson and Peter Mahovich gave the Canadiens the victory. Roberts' goal came on a short-handed breakthrough at 7:46 of the third period after the veteran right wing stole the puck from New York's Jean Potvin in the neutral zone and broke in on goalie Billy Smith.

Robinson's shot deflected in off New York defenseman Gerry Hart's skate at 11:31 before Mahovich wrapped up the victory with a power-play goal at 19:24.

Bud Foster Signs Grid Scholarship

Robert (Bud) Foster, a 6-2, 185-pound defensive back from Nokomis, Ill., High School, has accepted a football scholarship from Murray State University.

Foster was named to all-conference and the All-Midwestern teams each of the last two seasons. He has also been selected to play in the Illinois all-star game this summer.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster of Nokomis, Foster will major in physical education at Murray. He maintained a B average in high school. His high school coach was Bill Vangel.

Murray assistant Gary Crum, who signed Foster to the Murray grant, said he was "A quality player with the size and talent to help us next fall as a freshman."

Murray State Tennis Team Surprises 'Peay'

The Murray State University tennis team got back on the winning track Tuesday afternoon at the MSU courts by winning a 6-3 league match over Austin Peay.

The victory by the Racers avenges an earlier loss at Clarksville.

Defending league champion Gary Boss of Austin Peay took the number one singles by defeating Del Purcell 6-2 and 6-4.

Roger Westfall won 6-2, 6-2 at number two over Mohammed Zafar of Austin Peay but the Governors then won the next two singles matches.

Murray's Jeff Leeper fell 6-3, 6-4 at number three to Warren Lock and at number four, Roger Berthiaume of the Racers lost 6-3, 6-3 to Ken Wood.

But that was all Austin Peay could win. Murray won the fifth and sixth singles matches and swept all three matches in the doubles.

At number five in the singles, Sam Pruitt won 6-1 and 6-0 over Darrell Johnson of the Governors while at six, Tom Lie of the Racers took an easy 6-1, 6-0 win over Mike Campbell.

Westfall-Lie won in the number one doubles in the only match that went split sets. After losing the first set 6-4, Westfall and Lie came back to win the final two 6-1, 6-3 over Boss and Wood of Austin Peay. At number two, Purchell-Leeper won 7-5, 6-1 over Lock-Zafar and at number three, Pruitt-Berthiaume won 6-0, 6-0 over Johnson-Campbell.

Murray State now stands at 5-13 for the season.

The Racers will host a quadrangular this weekend. Visiting teams include UTM, Southeast Missouri and Fort Campbell.

There will be a session of tennis Friday afternoon, one Saturday morning and one Saturday afternoon.

All matches will be played at the MSU Tennis complex and the public is welcome to attend the matches.

Wiss Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Marcel Dionne of the Los Angeles Kings has won the 1976-77 Seven Crowns of Sports award as the most consistent and productive performer in the National Hockey League.

Dionne, who gets a $10,000 cash award, succeeds last year's winner, Guy Lafleur of the Montreal Canadiens, and edged Montreal goalie Ken Dryden in taking the computerized competition. It was the second straight year that Dryden has lost the title by one point.

Dionne had 53 goals and 69 assists for 122 points with Los Angeles this season.

Blazers, Rockets And Warriors Notch Wins

By ALEX SACHARE

AP Sports Writer

Bob Gross and Mike Newlin, two hard-nosed ballplayers who continually give 100 per cent, have put their teams in good position in the National Basketball Association playoff quarter-finals.

Gross, a 6-foot-6, second-year forward from Long Beach State, scored 12 of his 25 points in the fourth quarter Tuesday night, leading the Portland Trail Blazers to a 115-106 victory over the Denver Nuggets and a 3-1 lead in their best-of-seven series.

"Bobby played the best game I've ever seen him play, and one of the finest games a small forward has played in the league all season," praised Portland Coach Jack Ramsay. "His defense was excellent, he moved well and he shot well."

The Blazers can clinch the series Sunday at Denver, and Nuggets Coach Larry Brown knows his club is in trouble.

"We have to regroup," Brown said. "We have to win three in a row and that's a tough task because Portland is playing well."

Newlin, a rugged 6-4 guard who is constantly diving to the floor chasing loose balls, scored two baskets in the final 20 seconds, helping the Houston Rockets beat the Washington Bullets 107-103. That road victory tied the series 2-2 and regained the home-court advantage for the Rockets.

In Tuesday night's other game, Golden State evened its series with Los Angeles at 2-2 with a 114-103 victory over the Lakers. Forwards Rick Barry and Jamaal Wilkes combined for 53 points for the Warriors, offsetting 41 points and 18 rebounds by Lakers center Kareem Abdul-Jabbar.

The other series resumes tonight at Philadelphia, with the Boston Celtics and Philadelphia 76ers tied 2-2.

With the settlement of the referees' strike, four of the officials who walked out April 10 returned to action Tuesday night. Paul Mihalak worked with non-striker Richie Powers at Oakland, Manny Sokol teamed with non-striker Earl Strom at Portland and Joe Gushue and Ed Rush officiated at Landover, Md.

The Blazers led all the way, but Denver pulled within 78-76 going into the final period. Then Gross took charge, hitting four straight shots, Rod Laver of Australia easily giving the Blazers an 88-82 lead with 5:25 remaining. And his four free throws near the end of the game clinched the victory.

Lionel Hollins had 18 points for Portland, while Mack Calvin topped Denver with 28.

Houston took command of its game with Washington with eight straight points midway through the fourth quarter. Guard Calvin Murphy's steal and layup tied the score 92-92, then Rudy Tomjanovich hit two baskets and Moses Malone dunked the ball for a six-point lead.

Washington stayed close, however. Newlin's jumper with 20 seconds to go made it 105-101, but Tom Henderson scored for the Bullets, cutting the gap to two. But with 10 seconds left, Tomjanovich saw Newlin breaking free and fed him the ball for a clinching layup.

Tomjanovich led the Rockets with 28 points, while Washington's Phil Chenier tallied 29.

The Warriors scored nine consecutive points to open a 50-37 halftime lead and never were caught. Barry had 18 of his 26 points in the first half, including the final four before intermission.

TENNIS

MUNICH, West Germany —

Peter Elter of West Germany upset Jiri Hrebec of Czechoslovakia 6-0, 6-0 in a first-round match of the $75,000 Grand Prix tennis tournament.

LAS VEGAS — Unseeded hitting four straight shots, Rod Laver of Australia easily defeated sixth-seeded Mark Cox of Britain 6-2, 6-3 in the first round of the $250,000 Alan King Tennis Classic.

'Breds Drop Doubleheader To Mizzou, Now 28-14 On Season

In 1973, Murray State won 30 baseball games.

Since then, baseball has been the consistent winner and in 1975, the Thoroughbreds posted a 40-9 record and went to the NCAA Southern Regional in Starkville.

Tuesday afternoon at Missouri, the 'Breds lost a twinbill. The chances for winning even 30 games this season now look bleak.

Murray will play at Western Kentucky in a single game Saturday. The game, though it has no bearing on the OVC western division race, will be played because it could affect the outcome of the All-Sports Trophy race.

Then on Sunday, Murray will close the season at Carbondale against the Southern Illinois University Salukis. Nobody has success at SIU.

Last year, the 'Breds went to Columbia and swept a pair from the Tigers. But this time around, Missouri got its revenge.

Though getting just three hits in the opening game, Missouri posted a 4-2 win over Murray then in the second contest, the Tigers whipped the 'Breds 8-5.

Mark Wezet was the loser in the first contest.

Greg Cypret of Mizzou hit an inside-the-park homerun in the first inning to stake Jeff Cornell to a 1-0 lead.

In the top of the second, Murray got a pair of runs to take a 2-1 lead.

With one out, Reidland freshman Bruce Austin walked and St. Mary junior Al Luigs followed with a single. Both runners came home when freshman walk-on Tom Fehn ripped a double.

Missouri tied it in their half of the third with a walk, two consecutive groundouts and an error at second by Luigs.

In the fourth, Mike Lally of the Tigers ripped a Wezet fastball over the fence in left-center and Missouri led 3-2. The park at Missouri is bigger than most major league parks. Down the lines, it is 340 feet.

The Tigers added another run in the fifth when Rick Harris led off with a walk, took second on a groundout, stole third and scored on a sacrifice fly by John Kruse.

Murray had no serious threats in the final two innings.

Wezet fanned two batters and walked one. Cornell struck out six 'Breds and gave up four walks. Luigs and John Siemanowski each had two hits to lead the nine-hit Throughbred attack.

In the nightcap, Missouri got off to a 3-0 lead after two innings against Murray State freshman Clay Vangilder, who is from the "Show-Me" state.

In the top of the fourth, Murray made it 3-2 with a pair of runs. Dan Teel led off with a double but when Bill Wagoner grounded one toward short, Teel got caught in a rundown.

That left Wagoner on first with one out.

After Mike Calichio grounded out, Stan Giesler and Mike Cathey walked to load the bases for Austin who smacked a two-run single.

In the home half of the fourth, Missouri scored three runs off Vangilder, who hails from Cape Girardeau, to wrap up the win.

The big hits were back-to-back extra basehits by Curt Brown and Greg Cypret. Brown doubled while Cypret tripled. Murray closed to within one run at 6-5 with three in the sixth.

Austin knocked a two-out triple, Terry Brown doubled in Austin, Siemanowski walked and Darrell Niswonger belted a two-run triple.

But the Tigers added two more insurance runs in the sixth and then shut out Murray in the top of the seventh.

Vangilder went the distance, giving up 10 hits while walking five and fanning three.

Missouri improves its record to 29-13 while the 'Breds, who at one time were 20-4, fall to 28-14.

Lamp To Join Raker And Their Coach At Virginia

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The University of Virginia has given itself a Kentucky flavor, as well as chance at improving its basketball program, by signing Jeff Lamp, Kentucky's Mr. Basketball, to a national letter-of-intent.

The 6-foot-6 Lamp, a forward who averaged 25.3 points a game in leading Louisville Ballard to a 33-1 record at the state championship last season, signed the letter Tuesday during a visit by Virginia Coach Terry Holland.

Lamp will join another teammate, 6-5 forward Lee Raker, at Virginia. Raker signed with the Cavaliers last week, and Lamp said Raker's decision made the difference in the frenzied recruiting battle for Kentucky's top player.

"We're good friends," Lamp said, "and his deciding to go there made me look at it harder."

Virginia got into the recruiting battle late in the game, and after it appeared that Indiana University had Lamp in the bag.

Then all of the time invested in Lamp by Indiana Coach Bobby Knight went by the boards when Lamp visited Charlottesville, Va.

"I like the atmosphere, the players and Coach Holland," said Lamp. "I decided to go there because I liked it there more than any other place I visited, and not because I have anything against the others."

Until Virginia came on the scene, Lamp said he had narrowed the field down to Indiana, Minnesota and Louisville.

"I'm glad it's over," said Lamp. "I called all three of them and talked to the coaches who I had been dealing with — Bob Doneawald at Indiana, Bill Olsen at Louisville and an assistant at Minnesota."

In a related development, Ballard Coach Richard Schmidt said he plans to take "some time" to consider an offer to take an assistant coaching position at Virginia.

Schmidt, who will coach the Kentucky all-star team that will meet Indiana's prep stars June 18 and June 25, would have had to give up that post if he had taken the Virginia post. College coaches are not allowed to coach in the all-star series.

But sources close to the situation say that Schmidt will take the Virginia post as soon as his obligation to the all-star series is completed.

Trying For Pole

TALLADEGA, Ala. (AP) — Pole position qualifying runs began today for Sunday's Winston 500 Grand National stock car race, with Richard Petty and Cale Yarborough the favorites because of their swift practice rounds.

Petty and Yarborough, neither of whom has won the Winston 500 at Alabama International Motor Speedway, were among 65 drivers seeking positions in the 40-car field.

Petty toured the track at 188.586 miles per hour in his Dodge Tuesday, while Yarborough turned in a lap of 187.504 m.p.h. in a Chevrolet.

The pole position was won last year by Dave Marcis at 189.197 m.p.h.

Janet Guthrie was clocked at 183.850 m.p.h. in a practice round, breaking the record for women in stock cars. The 172.336 m.p.h. mark was set at Talladega last year by Paula Murphy.

Fifteen qualifying positions were to be decided today for the $236,885 race. Fifteen more will be determined Thursday and the last 10 in Friday time trials.

Tiger Netters Get Easy 9-0 Win Tuesday

The Murray High boys' tennis team remained unbeaten Tuesday afternoon at the Tiger courts by blanking Caldwell County 9-0.

In the number one singles, Brent Austin won 8-0 over Curtis Brown while at number two, Raymond Sims took an 8-2 win over Sean Mestan.

Brad Boone won 8-1 at three over Mike Brown while at four, Kevin Ray won 8-1 over Ben House.

In the number five singles, Ashley Smock took an 8-0 win over Mike Bowers while at six, Steve Cooper won 8-0 over Richie Boyd.

Sims-Boone won 8-4 at the number one doubles over Curtis Brown and Mestan. At number two, Kevin Ray and Mickey Cochran took an 8-0 win over House and Mike Brown.

The third doubles match found Mike Cappock and Andy Harrell winning 8-2 over Bowers-Boyd.

The Tigers are now 2-0 and will play at Lone Oak Friday.

EASY WIN—Grettis Bumphis of the Tigers gets ready to hit the string at the finish line as he easily won the 440-yard dash in the Tigers' triangular meet Tuesday. Two lanes over from Bumphis is Bo Reed of the Tigers. Reed finished fourth.

Orioles Bring End To Yankee Winning Streak

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

AP Sports Writer

"Pitching," says Doug Bird, "is a funny thing."

That's funny as in strange, not funny as in ha-ha. But until Tuesday night, Bird's pitching had been funny as in ha-ha while Rick Wise's mound efforts were downright hilarious.

All that changed abruptly. Bird, who had an earned run average of 4.15, fired six shutout relief innings and was the winner as the Kansas City Royals beat the Texas Rangers 6-3.

If Bird's ERA was rather high, Wise's was absolutely out of sight. It stood at 53.89, based on 1 2-3 innings pitched and 10 earned runs. It is a more respectable 9.60 now after Wise allowed only one run in 8 2-3 innings as the Boston Red Sox defeated the Milwaukee Brewers 3-1.

In other American League games, the Baltimore Orioles cooled off the New York Yankees 6-2, the Minnesota Twins downed the Seattle Mariners 5-3, the Chicago White Sox outlasted the Detroit Tigers 10-7 in 14 innings and the Oakland A's beat the California Angels 7-3.

Toronto and Cleveland were rained out.

Bird entered his game in the fourth inning after Ken Henderson slammed a shot off the knee of Kansas City starter Andy Hassler leading the bases. A run scored on Juan Beniquez' grounder but Bird then stopped the Rangers.

Meanwhile, the Royals scored twice in the bottom of the fourth on Darrell Porter's two-run triple, John Mayberry hit a two-run homer in the sixth and Al Cowens tripled home two runs in the eighth.

Red Sox 3, Brewers 1 While Wise was blanking the Brewers on three hits until the ninth, the Red Sox scored in the fourth on a single by Carlton Fisk and a double by Butch Hobson. They made it 3-0 in the fifth on a walk and singles by Jim Rice, George Scott and Fisk.

Orioles 6, Yankees 2 Doug DeCinces' two-run single highlighted a four-run first inning against a wild Ken Holtzman while ex-Yankee Rudy May scattered nine hits in ending New York's six-game winning streak. May is 4-0 against the Yankees since they traded him to the Orioles last June 15.

Twins 5, Mariners 3 Reliever Stan Thomas walked Dan Ford with the bases loaded forcing in the winning run in Minnesota's three-run eighth inning. Mike Cabbage, who singled home the tying run, scored an insurance tally on a grounder by Rich Chiles. The Mariners had taken a 3-2 lead when shortstop Craig Reynolds led off the seventh with his second home run of the season.

White Sox 10, Tigers 7 Richie Zisk and Eric Soderholm each drove in three runs, including one apiece in Chicago's three-run 10th. Each had homered earlier. Meanwhile, ex-Tiger-Lerrin Lagrow picked up the victory, holding Detroit to one unearned run over the final six innings.

A's 7, Angels 3 Dick Allen's fourth homer of the season broke a 3-3 tie in the eighth inning and Vida Blue pitched shutout ball after falling behind 3-0 in the first inning, two of the runs coming on Bobby Grich's homer. It was Blue's 11th consecutive triumph over the Angels in Anaheim and his first victory of the season.

Signs Contract LOS ANGELES (AP) — Running back Cullen Bryant, who played out his option last season with the Los Angeles Rams, has signed again with the National Football League club.

Salary terms of the contract were not revealed. But the Rams announced Tuesday that Bryant, who also runs back kicks, had signed a series of one-year contracts covering three seasons plus the option year.

Hussein Says Geneva Meet Would be Disaster

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jordan's King Hussein, winding up his Middle East talks with President Carter on a cautious note, says an ill-prepared Geneva peace conference "would be a disaster."

Hussein ended two days of talks here on Tuesday and planned to leave for home today.

"We in the Arab world haven't had a chance as yet to sit and evolve a common approach" on representation for the Palestinians, Hussein told a news conference Tuesday.

"I believe we will formulate these ideas as a result of our contacts, both together and with our friends. But to jump immediately now to specific problems of relatively minor importance in comparison with the main issue is probably the wrong way to set about it."

The principal issue, Hussein made clear, is Israeli withdrawal from the territory occupied during the 1967 war and what he described as Israel's reluctance so far "to take the gamble of peace."

An Israeli pullback, he said, "is much more important to my way of thinking than who represents which party at the conference in Geneva and in what form."

Carter, meanwhile, said it would be better not to have a Geneva conference "unless we see some strong possibilities for substantial progress."

Escorting the king from the White House after their third and last session, Carter said there was a consensus among Middle East leaders that "the more agreement that we can reach before going to Geneva the less argument there's going to be about the form of Palestinian representation."

But, he said, that issue remains unsolved and "it would be a mistake to expect too much" in the way of an Arab-Israeli settlement because the differences "are very wide and longstanding."

Carter's spokesman, Jody Powell, said the President had not given up hope of a Geneva conference before the end of the year. But another U.S. official said privately that Carter was not "starry-eyed" about Geneva and had "a sense of realism" about the complexities of the Middle East.

The Geneva talks recessed in 1974. Efforts to start them again have been stalemated.

Ridiculous Chores Done By Workers

NEW YORK (AP) — The next time your boss has you feeling blue, think about the secretary who has to dash to the corner newsstand every day to get a refund for the newspaper her boss just finished reading.

Or the secretary who had to chase all over Manhattan for chocolate covered marshmallow cookie for her boss and his clients.

Another secretary had to pick up the boss' wife at the hospital along with the couple's newborn baby; the boss was too busy for the occasion.

Those are three of about 100 entries in the Women Office Workers contest of most ridiculous personal chores performed by women here for their bosses.

The 10 most ridiculous chore entries, including the top winner who will get a free lunch on WOW, will be announced tonight at an open house at the group's headquarters.

The group, which represents clerical workers, secretaries, bookkeepers, keypunch operators, typists, receptionists, clerks and cashiers, also were to hold a lunchtime rally today in Manhattan to commemorate Women Office Workers Day as part of National Secretaries Week.

Carol Feeney, a staff member of WOW, said that the secretary who had to get the refund on The Wall Street Journal after her boss read it encountered some problems.

"At first the newsstand man objected, but then he took pity on the secretary," she explained.

Some other chores listed by the entrants:

—Spend two days with temporary help to write out Christmas cards and stamp them;

—Clean the boss' false teeth;

—Spread mayonnaise on the leaves of the boss' plants;

—Put drops in his ears or eyes;

—Get scolded for not knowing the voices of the women who call so as not to confuse the boss' wife and girlfriend; or —Receive a call in New York from the boss in Maryland who says, "My car broke down. Get me a tow truck."

Group To Send

Delegation To

Washington

WILLIAMSON, W.Va. (AP) — Leaders of a group protesting what they claim is inadequate federal flood relief say the group will send a delegation to Washington, D.C., even though they don't have an "invitation."

The protesters voted Tuesday night to send representatives to visit officials of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration and others, according to Jerry Hildebrand, a group leader.

Pickets from the group kept at least 2,800 coal miners out of work Monday.

Group leaders said they received a call from a White House aide Monday and believed she offered a formal meeting with White House officials. But the aide's supervisor later said the call had been unauthorized and that no meeting was scheduled.

Hildebrand said the size of the delegation and the date of the trip had not been established, but he thinks the group will go sometime next week.

Nixon's Silence To End After 1,000 Days

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard Nixon's public silence on Watergate will end next Wednesday, after exactly 1,000 days.

In the first of four taped interviews, Nixon the citizen will accept questions that Nixon the president turned away. What revelations result from the 90-minute program is known only to its participants — and they will say only that "it's exceedingly dramatic."

Interviewer David Frost who reportedly paid the former president $600,000 says, "I believe viewers will feel that this confrontation tests the Nixon accounting of Watergate the way and with the intensity that it should be tested."

Nixon last referred to Watergate in public on Aug. 8, 1974, when he announced his resignation. By accident or design, the interval adds to 1,000 days.

Frost, a personality on British and American television, shuffled the four programs around to begin with Watergate.

"We decided to put the Watergate show first because it's extremely dramatic and it's necessary to have the air cleared on Watergate to consider equally important and less controversial aspects of his presidency," says C. Robert Zelnick, a member of Frost's staff.

"From the beginning, we regarded as one of our missions ... to ask questions that might have been asked had not President Ford pardoned him a month after he left office."

Nixon resigned saying that Watergate had cost him the support of Congress and that to fight "for my personal vindication" would absorb all his time. The pardon for any and all crimes during his 5½-year presidency foreclosed any subsequent prosecution.

Zelnick, supervising a three-man team of researchers for the Frost interviews, said Watergate was saved for last in the 11 non-consecutive days of interviews at a private home near Nixon's own San Clemente, Calif., residence.

"A very rigorous interrogation on alleged abuse areas could conceivably have affected our relationship in other areas," he said.

He said the Watergate portion "will be as dramatic an hour and a half of television as anything I have ever seen on the screen."

Failing to sell the interviews to the three national networks, Frost assembled what he calls "an overnight network" of 138 individual stations. National sponsors will pay $125,000 a minute for commercials — six each show. The individual stations will have another six minutes of each program to sell locally.

Nixon was told the subject matter in advance of each taping, but got no preview of the actual questions. He had no control over the programs, Zelnick said, adding:

"Nixon will see the finished product when he turns on the TV set on May 4."

The second program on May 12 will deal with big power relations, the SALT talks, detente, the 1973 Middle East war, Chile and Henry Kissinger. The third, May 19, will be on Vietnam, the dissent against the war, the politics of polarization. In part 4, on May 25, Nixon will discuss his last days in the White House.

Metric Speed Limits To Be Observed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is going to raise the speed limits on the nation's roads and highways next year to 88 or 90.

But the speed limits won't change, only the way we measure them. The government is moving full speed ahead on a change-over to metric highway signs that may cost $100 million and take five years to complete.

The most dramatic change, converting speed limit signs from miles to kilometers, is slated to take place during just 90 days in the summer of 1978.

Forty miles per hour, for instance, will become 64 kilometers per hour. The national 55 m.p.h. speed limit works out to 88.5 k.p.h., and Federal Highway Administration officials are considering rounding that off to 90 k.p.h., or about 56 m.p.h.

A highway administration official said there is no plan to print both metric and mileage figures on the highway signs to ease familiarization.

The official said the action is in line with the national switch to the metric system outlined in the Metric Conversion Act of 1975.

The changeover will apply to every highway, road and city street in the country. Under the Metric Conversion Act, the highway administration can order the conversion, even on roadways that receive no federal aid.

During the 90 days ending Sept. 30, 1978, vertical clearance signs for overpasses also will be changed to metric figures. Truck drivers accustomed to looking out for 10-foot warnings will have to learn to hit the brakes when they see a three-meter sign.

Some American cars already contain markings for kilometers as well as miles, and auto makers already are planning to install metric speedometers and odometers in all cars.

Motorists with old cars will not be required to buy new speedometers. They will be able to go metric simply by pasting a label over their speedometer.

Frank Ellis To Speak At Rotary On Thursday

Frank Ellis, native Calloway Countian and currently president of Frank Ellis Associates, Inc., Arlington, Virginia, will be the principal speaker for the Murray Rotary Club Thursday noon, April 28, at the Woman's Club House.

His subject will be "American Agriculture as it Relates to World Food Supplies." Mr. Ellis received his bachelor's degree from Murray State University, where he distinguished himself as a student and editor-in-chief of the College News. While he was editor in 1933, the College News received the cup for the Best

All Around College Newspaper in the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association.

From 1962 until he retired June 30, 1972, Ellis served as deputy coordinator, Office of Food for Peace, Agency for International Development (AID). For his services with AID, he received the Distinguished Honor Award.

Frank Ellis also served as Administrative Assistant to Congressman Frank A. Stubblefield of Murray from 1959 to 1962. Congressman Stubblefield, in paying tribute to his fellow Calloway Countian, described Ellis as "the finest administrative assistant a freshman Congressman ever had."

Prior to 1959, except for a four year tour of military duty during World War II, Mr. Ellis served 24 years in the Department of Agriculture. He received the Department's Superior Service Award in 1956.

His firm, Frank Ellis Associates, is a food and agriculture consulting firm. In addition to his studies at Murray State he did graduate work at the University of Kentucky and the U. S. Department of Agriculture School. His wife is the former Hazel Boyer of Bradley County, Tenn., and they have two sons.

Attempts To Cap Oil Gusher Continue

STAVANGER, Norway (AP) — A seven-man crew went aboard Bravo rig in the North Sea's Ekofisk field today and resumed preparations for an attempt to cap the runaway gusher spewing out 36,000 gallons an hour.

"Weather conditions are fine," said a spokesman. "It is clear and there is a slight southern breeze which has reduced the concentration of gas in the platform area and reduced the danger of explosion."

Capping efforts were thwarted once by a gale and twice by too little wind, which UNIVERSITY THEATRE — Jackie Smith, left, plays Evie and David Davis plays Little Chap in the upcoming University Theatre Production of "Stop the World - I Want to Get Off." The production will be presented Thursday through Saturday at 8 p. m. in the University Theatre, Price Doyle Fine Arts Building.

Final Production At MSU Theatre Slated This Week

The upcoming University Theatre production of "Stop the World - I Want to Get Off" is a work of art blending mime, song, sculpture, dance and acting, said James I. Schempp, director and assistant professor of speech and theatre at MSU.

The hit Broadway musical featuring the songs "What Kind of Fool Am I?" and "Gonna Build a Mountain," will be presented Thursday through Saturday at 8 p. m. in the University Theatre, Price Doyle Fine Arts Center.

Over fifty people are involved in the university's final production of the season, including cast members, stage workers, and members of the orchestra, said Patty Gary, a senior from Carmel, Ind.

Schempp said that he is pleased with the balance between singing and acting. "I have found that the actors can sing and the singers can act, which is delightful."

The orchestration done by Jenny L. Holtgren, instructor of music, is very good, Schempp said. Betsy Dunman, Louisville, designed the lighting, and Scott Beecham, Murray, served as stage manager. Nancy Schempp did the choreography.

David Davis, Owensboro, designed the set to follow the circus theme. Lee Ann Hall, Hopkinsville, designed and constructed costumes ranging from a belly dancer to a lion tamer.

The original Broadway production didn't emphasize the circus theme as strongly, Hall said. However, in theatre, you don't want a reproduction of someone else's work, she said. "You take the same basic theme and rearrange it to where it becomes your own."

Admission is $2.50 or by season ticket. Tickets may be obtained from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. in the University Box Office, Price Doyle Fine Arts Center, or by calling 762-4421.

Effects Of Noise To Be Discussed

The levels, effects and cost of noise pollution will be among the topics to be discussed Thursday, April 28, at a day-long seminar on noise pollution at Murray State University.

The seminar is being sponsored jointly by the Department of Engineering and Industry Technology and the Department of Special Education at Murray State along with the Kentucky Division of Air Pollution Control.

To be held in the auditorium of the Special Education Building, the seminar will be presented by experts from industry, government and the university in the field of noise pollution and control. A registration fee of $10 includes all the sessions of the seminar as well as lunch. A late registration period from 8:30 until 9 a. m. Thursday is being provided for late participants.

Continuing Education credit also may be received for attending the seminar with participants being awarded a "Certificate of Completion."

Among those participating in the sessions will be: Tommy Jackson, chief of the Noise Control Section of the state-wide division, who will discuss the "Legislative Background and Rationale for the Workshop," and John Szymanski, an analytical sales engineer with B & K Instruments, Inc., Fairfield, Ohio. He will discuss "Basics of Noise: What It Is; How It Is Measured; Units."

Following lunch, Don Noles, clinical audiologist with the university, will discuss the "Effects of Noise on Humans," and Gerald R. Coonan, environmental noise manager with the Peabody Coal Company, St. Louis, Mo., will discuss the "Cost of Noise Control."

Dr. Ken Williams, a staff member with the Environmental Protection Agency, Atlanta, Ga., will be the final speaker, discussing the "Current Position of the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency."

A question and answer period and a tour of the university's audio-metric testing facilities will conclude the day's program.

McDougal Named To Post

Johnny McDougal, director of student financial aid at Murray State University, is the new president-elect of the Kentucky Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (KASFAA).

He was elected during a recent meeting of the KASFAA at General Butler State Park near Carrollton. McDougal will become president in the spring of 1978.

During the meeting, which was attended by about 100 student financial aid personnel from 50 Kentucky colleges and universities, McDougal was also recognized for his committee work in two areas during the past year.

McDougal, who has directed the financial aid program at Murray State since 1966, has been active for several years in state and regional financial aid organizations. He is a 1965 business administration graduate of Murray State.

He said the KASFAA benefits students by affording aid administrators an opportunity to improve professionally through the exchange of ideas and experiences with others in similar jobs throughout the state.

McDougal added that the association will begin a Professional Development Program for its members during the coming year while working to stay abreast of federal and state legislation affecting student financial aid programs.

Fifteen members of the Murray Middle School Seventh and Eighth Grade Band have been selected for the All-District Junior Band which will be in concert at Murray State University on Saturday, May 14. Rehearsals will be held on May 13 and 14. They were selected after twenty-four students from Murray Middle tried out for the district junior band at Marshall County High School on April 21. Six Murray students were named as alternates. They are, left to right, standing, Charles Beaman, Susan Kurz, Molly Valentine, Robert Johnson, Becky Shuffett, Lynne Outland, alternate, Laurie McIntosh, Claudia Billington, Karen Parker, Jacque Dean, Deanna Duncan, Sharie Crafton, Lisa Russell, Alternate, front row, Randy Wilson, alternate, Christine Grogan, Lisa Clees, alternate, Eddie Rogers, alternate, Kayne Beasley, William Smith, Tracey Beyer, alternate, and Karla Russell.

Family Of Four Needs $10,000 For Austerity

WASHINGTON (AP) — Austerity is getting more expensive all the time, the government says.

The Labor Department said Tuesday it costs an urban family of four more than $10,000 a year to support an "austere" living standard. The same family needs $16,236 to live moderately and $23,759 for an existence with some luxuries, the new figures show.

The cost of living, based on calculations from last fall, rose 4.7 per cent for the austere budget, 6 per cent for the moderate budget and 6.6 per cent for the higher budget over the previous year.

The department makes its calculations for a hypothetical family with a 38-year-old breadwinner, a wife who doesn't work outside the home and their two children, a 13-year-old son and an 8-year-old daughter.

The estimates include personal income taxes and Social Security payments.

As was the case in 1975, living costs were lower in Southern cities than in other metropolitan areas.

A poor family of four would have found the lowest costs in Austin, Texas, and the highest in Anchorage, Alaska.

The high-budget family would have found a low of $20,628 to maintain its standard of living in Austin and a high of $29,667 in metropolitan New York and some areas of New England, the Labor Department said.

Jordan Would Like More Time For Decisions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hamilton Jordan says there aren't many things he wishes he'd done differently during the first 100 days of President Carter's administration. But he would like a little more time between the big decisions.

During those first hundred days, Jordan: —Disagreed with the way Carter handled the water projects. —"I'd have left them alone.... I just wouldn't have raised that issue," he said. —Put a stop to one or two things headed toward impropriety.

"I can't give you the names or details" but like "a guy who's parlaying his relationships with people, the staff. You know, representing himself around Washington as being close to the President and semi-involved over here" and trying to turn that to personal advantage. —Thought "the thing that's probably best substantively is the fact that Carter's taken charge. —He's comfortable. He's at ease.... He has a good relationship with his staff, a good relationship with his Cabinet. He is in a posture very early in his administration of being able to govern and make decisions." —Criticized the results of the administration's drive to appoint women and minorities. —"I'm not satisfied. I'm sure those groups are not satisfied. But it is a vast improvement over other administrations." Jordan, the President's 32-year-old assistant whose job is to give Jimmy Carter political advice, mused about the administration's first three months in an interview at his White House office a half dozen doors and a telephone call from the Oval Office. —"There haven't been any big surprises," he said. But ... —"I'd have some of the big things that came up spread out a little more. They've all come up in the same, you know, couple of weeks. Inflation, energy, decision on dams, the vote on the minimum wage—all this in a week to 10 days. Not all of that's our doing. Some of it is, and I'd like these things to be spread out a little more." Jordan said Carter would do nothing differently to improve relations with labor, business or farmers — all less than ecstatic about presidential decisions on how much to support for a minimum wage, how best to stimulate the economy, how much to provide in price supports. —Nor would Carter do anything differently about water projects. "I would, but I'm not president. And he wouldn't," Jordan said. Carter's decision to review 32 dams and other water projects brought bitter congressional criticism.

21 Persons Questioned In Connection With Assassination

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Twenty-one persons, including a retired Louisville police chief, were questioned by congressional investigators here last week about an alleged conspiracy to assassinate Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Former Police Chief C. J. Hyde, 60, confirmed Tuesday he was one of those questioned by investigators from the House Select Committee on Assassinations.

Hyde, who was chief when King was slain in Memphis, Tenn., in 1968, said he was asked "about the time I was police chief" and about Clifton E. Baird, 50, a retired Louisville policeman who told Rep. Gene Snyder, R-Ky., that he knew of a conspiracy to assassinate King.

Baird told Snyder he was offered $500,000 to kill King. Snyder said he changed his mind about extending financing for the committee on the basis of what Baird told him. Before he was contacted by Baird in February, Snyder had been opposed to the committee.

Snyder said he met his informant, later identified as Baird, "face to face" and was convinced he was "not a kook." Snyder also said he listened to a tape recording Baird claimed was made when he was offered money to kill King.

Although Snyder said the tape was partly inaudible, he said he heard enough about "King and money" to become concerned about the allegation.

The tape recording, along with a letter Baird sent to Snyder in which the names of several Louisville police officers and FBI agents were listed, have been turned over to the committee, the congressman said. Snyder said Baird claimed the plot involved about six Louisville policemen and several FBI agents.

Hyde said if Baird had come to him with the allegation he would have believed "it had some substance to it."

Bert Chardak, a spokesman for the committee, refused to reveal the names of those questioned by the investigators. However, he said "several former members of the Louisville Police Department" were among those questioned. Reliable sources said Baird also was interviewed. Snyder has indicated Baird has talked to committee investigators on at least two other occasions.

Hyde said he knew nothing about Baird's allegation but that the days prior to King's assassination were "turbulent times" in Louisville. The late Dr. King was a frequent visitor to Louisville.

"I would believe there was some substance in anything he said," Hyde said of Baird. "Everything I know about him is good. He is not a kook. I would not classify him, in no way, as a kook. He's a hard-working policeman that you could count on."

Hyde, who was chief from 1968 until 1971 and assistant chief for six years before that, described Baird as "honorable, respectable, truthful, hardworking, (and) not a publicity hound."

"You couldn't get him to talk as much as I have," Hyde said, "and that's not much. The only thing unusual about this whole thing (the allegation) is that he said this. Knowing him like I do, he's not a man that talks enough."

He declined to discuss further what questions he was asked by the investigators.

Baird has not been available for interviews since his wife confirmed he was the man who told Snyder of the alleged plot. His wife also has refused to talk to newsmen since then.

Chardak said "an attorney and one professional investigator" were in Louisville from April 13 to April 20 and interviewed 21 persons in connection with Baird's allegation.

"In order to find some of the people they got some help from the chief of police in Louisville," Chardak said. "Now they are back here and they are going over the material they have gotten. I don't know whether they will be going back to Louisville or not."

According to Snyder, Baird took his allegation to attorneys for James Earl Ray, who is serving 99 years in prison for the murder of King.

James H. Lesar, one of Ray's attorneys, said he looked into Baird's allegation and "concluded there wasn't much to it."

No Progress Made In Breaking Deadlock With Soviet Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carter administration has made "absolutely no progress" toward breaking the deadlock with the Soviet Union over a new treaty to limit nuclear weapons, U.S. officials say.

The four assessment comes after four weeks of intensive American efforts to reverse the Soviets' rejection of a proposal by President Carter to radically change the approach to a Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty (SALT).

The officials discussed the SALT situation after insisting

Stevens Is Winner Of Scholarship

Russell Stevens, 19, a freshman history major from Clarksville, Tenn., has been named winner of the 1976-77 Herbert J. Levine Scholarship Contest at Murray State University.

The son of Mrs. Helena Stevens and Charles Stevens, both of Clarksville, and a graduate of Clarksville High School, Stevens will receive a $200 scholarship as first prize for his essay on "America: Does It Have a Special Mission in the World."

The program was established in 1968 by Dr. Levine, a Centralia, Ill., physician, and his wife to encourage Murray State undergraduates to express personal views on a current aspect of American democracy.

The second-place award, a $100 scholarship, was won by Sharon Norton, 20, a junior political science and mathematics major from Paris, Tenn.

A graduate of Henry County High School, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Norton, Route 5, and has been on the dean's list at Murray State each of the five semesters she has completed. Miss Norton, who plans a career in law, also is a member of the Student Government Senate and is a member of Phi Sigma Alpha, an honorary fraternity in political science, and Pi Mu Epsilon, an honorary fraternity in mathematics.

This was the eighth consecutive year that Murray State students have competed for the $300 in scholarships, provided by Dr. and Mrs. Levine, who also sponsor similar contests on other campuses.

that they not be quoted by name.

They said the United States has offered no major change in the two proposals turned down March 30 by Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev during talks with Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance in Moscow.

Carter, Vance and national security adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski then tried to promote the rejected approach in subsequent meetings here with Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin.

In spite of optimistic statements from Carter and others, the officials say neither Dobrynin nor any other Soviet leader budged from his opposition.

The sources also downplayed the importance of Tuesday's announcement of the resumption of working-level talks in Geneva on implementing whatever SALT agreement is reached.

Any claim that these talks, which start May 11, represent progress is "simply a charade," the officials said. The delegations have no meaningful work to do until the U.S. and Soviet leaders break their impasse, the officials said.

In recent talks with Dobrynin, including a meeting

State GOP

Headquarter

Is Burglarized

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — A Republican spokesman said Tuesday that a weekend burglary of GOP state headquarters was "either rank amateurism or political espionage, or both."

Larry Van Hoose, executive secretary of the party, said someone entered GOP headquarters during the weekend through an unlocked rear window.

He said nine desk drawers and the file cabinets were rifled, but added it has not been determined if anything is missing.

"We don't think copies of any material were made," Van Hoose said.

In a break-in three years ago, he said, the office copying machine was used to copy papers. This time, he said, the machine was out of order.

Van Hoose said some documents at party headquarters could be useful in political campaigns.

"We're in the business of opposition research," he said.

Monday with Vance, the American side has shifted from promoting its proposals to seeking a new Soviet approach.

But the Russians have stayed with their assertion that a new SALT accord should be based on broad principles reached in the November 1974 Vladivostok summit.

The Carter proposal called for major cuts in each nation's nuclear arsenal and banned the development of new strategic weapons systems.

Brezhnev rejected this approach as inequitable. He contended it left the United States with current advantages and cut the Soviet lead where it has a head start.

Vance is scheduled to meet with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko next month in Geneva for what the Carter administration insists will be a major discussion on SALT.

However, Soviet leaders still have not conceded that the Vance-Gromyko meeting will deal with SALT.

Dixon To Participate In Meetings

Roger B. Dixon, traveling representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, and his wife Beverly, are in Murray this week, April 26 to May 1, where he will participate in a series of meetings with the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, according to Robert Rodriguez, presiding overseer of the Murray congregation.

Rodriguez stated that during his visit here Dixon will present a special program for the public entitled "Is there a Creator Who Cares About You?" This program, according to Rodriguez, will feature 140 colored slides that have been prepared to give visual proof that God does exist and that He cares for mankind and how we live.

The local congregation extends a welcome to the community to attend Dixon's presentation to be held at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 16th St. Ext. and Utterback Road, Sunday, May 1 at 9:30 a. m.

Changes Made In State Monitoring System

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Hoping to still recent criticism, the state administration has made changes in its haphazard procedure for monitoring property owned and leased by the Commonwealth.

The centerpiece of the structure is a new Bureau of Public Properties headed by James S. Bird, a 30-year-old Lexington real estate man.

The bureau will keep tab on leases and state-owned property in all 120 counties instead of relying on separate agencies as has been the case.

Gov. Julian Carroll has signed an executive order which establishes the bureau and spells out its responsibilities.

The bureau, which is in the Department for Finance and Administration, has three divisions:

—Property management to handle space allocation and leasing.

—Real property to manage purchases and sales of state property.

—Physical plant to maintain property.

Carroll said Tuesday that this year almost $5 million is being spent for leasing 1.8 million square feet of space.

This is more than double the $2.3 million spent in 1974 for 1.2 million square feet.

"We now have an agency which has specific authority to determine first whether new

State Income Tax Refunds Are Higher

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Your state income tax refund this year averaged $7 more than last year, but the Department of Revenue does not know the reason for the increase.

The average refund is likely to go higher when final figures are tabulated because the state's income tax collection process is not complete.

Revenue Commissioner Maurice Carpenter said Tuesday that so far his department has authorized 552,626 refunds for a total of $41,190,389, or average payment of $74.54.

Last year the comparative data was 538,833 refunds for $36,207,897, or a $67.83 average.

Not until July 1 or so will the state finally know how much it has paid in refunds.

That's because residents in 15 eastern Kentucky counties have been permitted an extension in filing tax returns until June 15. The normal deadline is April 15.

They can include losses from the recent floods on their current returns instead of waiting until next year to do so.

Those who already have filed also can file amended returns.

"We got about $27 million in individual income taxes from those counties last year," Carpenter said. "It's quite likely they'll get sizeable refunds this year and our total from the tax will be cut quite a bit."

The commission said the loss in expected collections could run into millions of dollars, enough to throw off the annual estimate for income tax receipts.

"It could cause some fiscal problems," Carpenter said.

The state has projected collections of $341 million in income taxes for the fiscal year ending June 30.

"We were on the way to making it nicely if it hadn't been for the big flood," Carpenter said.

Taxpayers in the 15 counties designated for disaster relief can wait until they file next year's income tax to take off casualty losses.

If many choose this option, the impact on state revenue collections would be marginal.

However, Carpenter said there is no way of knowing yet how many will take advantage of the opportunity to declare their losses a year earlier than normal.

Drakesboro

Woman Is

Ticket Winner

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Leslie Shively Smith of Drakesboro today won a drawing for two Kentucky Derby tickets as a guest of Gov. Julian Carroll.

The drawing was an effort by the governor "to bring the Derby within the reach of average Kentuckians."

Mrs. Smith, who writes a column for a weekly Central City newspaper, will come to Frankfort with her daughter next week to attend the traditional Derby breakfast at the Executive Mansion and go with the Carrolls to Churchill Downs for the big race May 7.

It was the first time such a drawing was held and the governor said he might do it again next year. About 1,200 persons sent in their names.

An alternate was chosen in the event Mrs. Smith could not make it. That will be James Ouellette of the 101st Finance Company at Ft. Campbell.

COOKING CORNER

Murray Banker Invests Time As Top-Notch Cook

By ANN UDDBERG

Bill Boyd, president of Peoples Bank of Murray, and his lovely wife Jane, who is also his secretary, enjoy entertaining in their home. Their memorable dinners are planned, executed, and cleaned up after jointly. They select and plan the menus with their guests in mind as well as with an eye on the local markets. Preferring to use only fresh fruits and vegetables, they take advantage of the best available each season. Jane is usually responsible for the vegetables and breads.

Bill is in charge of the gourmet items on the menu as well as the desserts. He insists that the food served be properly garnished; a delight for the eye as well as the palate. Therefore, this busy couple finds time to grow and tend fresh mint and parsley to be used almost all year round.

Fresh flowers, candles, color combinations, and table settings are all given close scrutiny.

Bill's first culinary experience came, when as a college student he and three other boys decided to rent an apartment. Chores involved in running the household were printed on cards. Cooking, voted the most difficult, was on a card by itself. All the cards were then placed face down on a table and the new roommates each drew a card for their responsibilities. Bill drew "cooking." The first thing he did was buy a cook book, title now unremembered, and a dictionary to interpret what the cook book said. Thus, a menu planner-cook emerged and has evolved into an outstanding host.

Bill now likes the challenge of recreating dishes he has enjoyed in restaurants, clubs and private homes. His favorite cookbooks are the "Murray Woman's Club Cookbook (he has every issue), and "Gabby The Gourmet" by his friend Gabby Gupton, who also shares his avocation, being the vice-president of the Third National Bank of Nashville.

The Boyd's favorite formal dinner party is for six guests. They like to have appetizers, one hot and one cold, in the den. They then progress to the dining room for French onion soup, mixed green salad, standing rib roast, twice baked potatoes, fresh brussels sprouts, Jane's rolls and finish with a flare, dessert being one of the house specialties. It might be Bill's ice cream pie, Bananas' Easter, Coconut cake or anything else Bill has seen or imagined. During dinner appropriate music, selected the evening before, plays softly in the living room.

When warm weather arrives they like to have about fourteen on their patio for Bill's justly famous bar-b-que ribs, corn-on-the-cob, potato salad, and a carved watermelon filled with fresh fruits. The melon sits on a special tray in a lush bed of mint. Needless to say guests eat until the food is gone, long past when they are full.

Table linens and accessories are selected to complement the informal setting, but candles and flowers are always present.

Today Bill shares with us some of his favorite family and company dishes; which have made an invitation to 1711 Magnolia Drive an event to be anticipated, enjoyed and long-remembered by many.

meaty, not back, ribs per person. The ribs are then cut in serving size pieces, or you can instruct the butcher to do it for you. Sprinkle the ribs on both sides with garlic salt, black pepper, paprika, and salt.

On a double thick piece of Aluminum foil shingle, or over-lap pieces of ribs so that only the bone touches the foil. Wrap ribs "drug store" style, closing top and sides tightly, with all folds on the top of the package. Place the package in the oven or on the grill at a very low temperature for approximately one hour.

Meanwhile, make a shallow pan of more double thickness foil. This pan should be made to fit the bar-b-que grill. Make the sauce. Slice onions and lemons as thinly as possible, enough to cover ribs. When the ribs have cooked one hour dip them in the sauce and place them on the foil pan; cover with onions and lemons.

Baste continuously with the sauce. Turn the ribs every ten minutes until most of the sauce has been absorbed. Then punch holes in the foil to let the fat escape. Continue turning until the ribs are browned. Once the sauce has been applied, it should take about 45 minutes before the ribs are ready to eat.

Barbecue Sauce
1/4 C. onions, chopped fine
1 ounce bacon fat
1/4 t. mixed spices
1 1/2 t. salt
1 1/2 t. chili powder
3/4 t. Cayenne pepper
2 drops Tabasco
5 ounces tomato puree
2 ounces tomato catsup
2 ounces vinegar
4 ounces chicken stock (bouillon cube)
1/2 ounce sugar

Brown onion in bacon fat. Tie mixed spices (cloves, peppercorns, bayleaf, etc.) in a cheesecloth bag and add to mixture with remaining ingredients except sugar. Bring mixture to a boil and simmer 10 minutes. Heat sugar in a separate pan until it turns brown; don't let it burn. Add to sauce and mix well. Simmer 30 minutes. Remove spice bag. Makes 1 pint.

Fresh Coconut Cake
2 1/2 C. flour
1 1/2 C. sugar
3/4 t. Baking Powder
3/4 t. salt
1/2 C. egg whites
3/4 C. shortening
1 1/2 t. vanilla
1/2 C. milk
1/2 C. water

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Beat short-cut in 5 inch squares. Put about a tablespoon of apples and a dot of butter in center. Fold crust over and around tending, vanilla, milk, and water in deep container until well blended. Mix with dry ingredients. Add unbeaten egg whites, and mix only until well mixed. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes. Use two 8-inch pans.

Icing
1/4 C. shortening
1 t. vanilla
coconut
1 box powdered sugar
Milk

Blend the ingredients using a handful of the coconut. Ice while the cake is still warm, spreading the remaining coconut between layers and on top of cake.

Bill Boyd's Ice Cream Pie Coconut Crust (makes one)

1 and one-third cups flaked coconut
2 Tablespoons butter, melted
2 Tablespoons sugar
1/4 cup crushed graham crackers or vanilla wafers
Combine coconut and butter and mix well. Add sugar and crumbs and mix thoroughly. Press firmly (I use the bottom of a glass) on bottom and sides of pie pan. Bake in moderate oven 10 to 12 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool.

While crust is cooling, set out about a quart of vanilla ice cream for each pie, to soften. Make the crunch topping.

Crunch Topping
3/4 cups flaked coconut
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 Tablespoon butter, melted
1 Tablespoon sugar

Mix altogether and spread on cookie sheet. Toast in moderate oven until crisp and lightly browned, stirring frequently.

Spread softened ice cream evenly in crust, spoon crunch topping over it while still warm. Press down with hand slightly. Put into freezer and freeze until firm. Wrap in foil, store until ready to serve. Remove from freezer about 5 minutes before you are ready to serve to mellow. Top with sauce.

Sauce
1/2 Cup butter
1 cup brown sugar
2 Tablespoons corn syrup
one-third cup heavy cream

Melt butter over low heat. Stir in brown sugar, syrup and cream. Bring to a boil. Let boil about 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and cool. May be refrigerated for several days or stored in freezer for a longer period. Remove portion needed and heat. Pour over ice cream pie while still warm. Be sure it drizzles down side of pie. (I usually make up a cup of cream and increase the other ingredients accordingly as it stores real good and is also good as a topping for ice cream. Throw a handful of nuts over it when you use it for ice cream sundaes.)

DRIED APPLE ROLLS

Cover about three cups dried apples with water and cook until tender. Sweeten to taste. Add a dash of cinnamon, dash of allspice, pinch of salt and continue cooking until thick and water is absorbed. Cool.

Make pastry and roll thin.

apples. Place in buttered pyrex, dot with butter and sprinkle with sugar. Bake until lightly browned in 350 degree to 375 degree oven. Pour sauce over them and return to oven until bubbling all over. Serve warm with additional sauce.

Sauce: Mix 1 cup sugar, 3 scant tablespoons flour, pinch of salt, dash of nutmeg and cinnamon. Add 1 1/2 cups water and juice of 1/4 lemon. Drop in rind of lemon and cook mixture until clear and thick. Remove rind and add two tablespoons butter. Stir in about a tablespoon dried apples, if desired, and pour over cooked rolls. If you have any left, heat and pour over rolls when served.

Pastry: 2 1/4 cups flour, 3/4 cup Crisco, 1 teaspoon salt, 5 tablespoons cold water. This makes enough for 16 rolls.

Quick Hot Brown
one-third Cup butter or margarine
1 medium onion, finely chopped
one-third Cup flour
3 Cups hot milk
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon red pepper

1/4 pound processed cheese, grated
2 eggs, well beaten
1 tablespoon butter, additional
Sliced chicken, turkey or ham (we use chicken and ham or turkey and ham)
Parmesan cheese
Paprika
For garnish: Bacon, parsley, tomato

Melt butter or margarine in heavy saucepan over medium heat, add onion and cook until clear. Add flour and blend to make a smooth paste, add milk, salt and red pepper. Stir and cook until thick and smooth. Stir in cheese, eggs and remaining tablespoon butter. Continue to cook, stirring, until mixture almost reaches boiling point, but do not let it boil. Remove from heat.

To assemble, toast eight slices bread, cut four in half diagonally. On four oven-proof plates, arrange toast, lay sliced meat over it. Cover with sauce, Parmesan cheese and paprika. Place under broiler or hot oven until sauce begins to bubble. Garnish with crisp bacon, parsley and tomato. Serve at once. Four servings.

Debaters

Win Honors

Two Murray State University debate teams took third place honors in several categories during a speech tournament held recently at the University of Kentucky.

Krit Stubblefield, Murray freshman and Ed Pape, Chicago, Ill., junior were recognized as the third place team on the basis of their win-loss record.

The team of Wes Bartlett, Owensboro junior and John Martin, West Plains, Mo. freshman was ranked third in the number of points scored overall. Bartlett received the highest point award in a single round of any Murray debater. Martin won third place in individual speaking.

According to Robert Valentine, MSU director of debate, the Kentucky tournaments give inexperienced debaters the opportunity to participate in tournament competition.

"These novice debaters did remarkably well in their first attempt at intercollegiate debating," Valentine said.

The MSU debaters will spend the remaining two weeks of the semester in regional high schools presenting demonstration debates.

Teachers To Be Guests At MSU

Public school teachers who have supervised student teachers from Murray State University during the spring semester will be the guests of the Department of Instruction and Learning at a special dinner and conference on Monday evening, May 2.

Approximately 150 supervising teachers in cooperating schools in Louisville and west of Louisville are expected to attend the get-together in Beshear Gymnasium in the Student Center on the campus. Dr. Harry M. Sparks, president emeritus of Murray State, will be the guest speaker. In addition to almost six years as Murray State president, Sparks is also known for his work in public schools and a four-year term as Kentucky superintendent of public instruction. He is a former president of the Kentucky Education Association.
